FIRST TENNESSEE
FOUNDATION

We Need Your

www.150DaysofGiving.com

In celebration of their 150th anniversary, the First Tennessee Foundation will be selecting one local charitable organization (from 1000 eligible nonprofits) each day over a period of 150 days to receive a $5000 award. Awards will be based on number of votes received. Voting opened on March 10, 2014, 15 days before the anniversary date of March 25. Anyone can vote; you do not have to register and you can vote for up to ten different nonprofits each day. Voting is via electronic device (desktop computer, laptop computer, smart phone, and tablet) and people with more than one device can vote from each device once per day. Voting will occur at www.150DaysofGiving.com. The first winner will be announced on March 25th at midnight and the voting and awards will continue for 150 days. Each organization can win only once. We encourage all friends of The Mary Galloway Home to vote and enlist your friends and family in helping us win this award.

Mission Statement

Our continuing goal is to provide “protection, comfort and support in a harmonious and dignified setting for retirement-aged women with financial needs” - the purpose stated over one hundred years ago.

Spotlight On Our Residents

Helen at the Luau

Helen McKee

by Beverly Williams

Helen McKee was born in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. She grew up in Terre Haute, Indiana, where her family moved when she was five. Her father worked for a wholesale grocery company, and her mother was a homemaker. Her only sister, who was a year older, died two years ago.

After graduating from high school, she attended college for a year, then got married. She met her husband, Mac, while on vacation in Hawaii. He was in the Air Force and Helen said she “fell in love with the uniform at first sight.” After they got married, Helen had a career working for the Air Force and the Army. They moved around a lot and whenever they got to a new town, she would ask if there was a military base nearby and she would had no problem finding a job.

They lived in Hawaii, Massachusetts, Ohio, Indiana, and Tennessee.

Tina, Helen and Terry

They finally settled in Memphis, where their son, Terry, was born. Helen quit work while he was growing up, but went back to work at the Social Security office in the Federal Building after she and her husband divorced. She has never remarried, but says she “met some nice-looking men along the way.”

Helen is very proud of her family. Her son, Terry, and her “very sweet” daughter-in-law, Tina, now live in Fort Worth, Texas.

She has two grandsons, Thomas, who works for ESPN, and Joey, who attends the University of Tennessee in Knoxville. A modern woman, she loves to text message with her children and grandchildren.

Her number one interest is sports. She is a huge fan of the Grizzlies and also the University of Memphis basketball team. She also follows Ole Miss and U.T. football. She has a picture with former Grizzlies coach Hubie Brown and once met Zach Randolph in the airport. She has been surprised to find how many Mary Galloway ladies are sports fans.

Helen also enjoys traveling and went along with her sister, Marty, to meetings all over the country. Another interest is baking and she was famous for making “the world’s best cookies.”

Helen lived independently until she had a fall resulting in a badly fractured shoulder. She is happy that she found Mary Galloway and Mary Galloway is happy to have this lively and charming lady with the positive outlook.

Heart To Heart

All the Mary Galloway ladies, dressed in festive red, turned out for the annual Valentine party. Reverend Ray Hatton, minister of music at First Baptist Church and Mary Galloway's favorite Valentine, once again entertained the ladies. He played Academy Award winning songs from years gone by and the ladies and Board members guessed the titles and sang along. Refreshments and red roses were provided by the Board. It was a lively and fun party.

New Member of the Board of Directors

Memphis attorney Toni Parker is the newest member of the Mary Galloway Board of Directors. Toni received her undergraduate and law degrees from Ole Miss. She is in solo practice, primarily in the area of bankruptcy law. She and her husband, Greg, have twin daughters who are seniors at White Station High. The family attends Independent Presbyterian Church and have worked on several mercy missions through the church. They are big Ole Miss sports fans. We are delighted to welcome Toni to the Mary Galloway Board.
